Connect with wedding experts at National Bride Show

Published on Sep 03, 2009

The National Bride Show, Toronto's best bridal show returns to the International Centre, Sept. 11-13.

The National Bridal Show connects Toronto area brides and grooms with wedding professionals from across Ontario, bringing all the resources together under one roof to help couples save time and money while planning their wedding.

Spouses to be can connect with wedding experts from across the GTA as hundreds of exhibitors feature top of the line and unique bridal products and services in the GTA.

They can also discover creative ideas, learn wedding tips and see the latest fashion and decoration trends.

The National Bridal Show is every couple's complete planning and shopping connection, with everything from florists, designers, caterers, event venues, dj's, photographers, cake designers and more.

All that's new and fresh in wedding fashion will take the stage at the onsite fashion shows, which will present the latest in apparel for the entire wedding party.

Arrive early as seating is limited. Check the website for fashion show times.

New this time around, the show will go green, infusing a new focus to the show: Green Weddings.

A growing trend in the wedding industry, exhibitors who offer eco-friendly products and services will be highlighted at the event.

The show is open on Friday, Sept. 11 from 5-9 p. m.; Saturday, Sept. 12 from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. and Sunday, Sept. 13 from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The event is at the International Centre, Hall 5, 6900 Airport Road at Derry Road. Parking is free.

The National Bridal Show also partners with The Brides' Project to reduce waste and help all brides afford to look beautiful on their special day. Attendees can bring gently used bridal gowns to the Brides' Project booth at the show; the dresses will be recycled for sale at the Brides' Project store location in Toronto.

The Brides' Project (www.thebridesproject.com) has two purposes: to provide every bride with the things she needs for a beautiful wedding within her budget and help children and adults living with cancer.

Tickets are available at the door and online. Admission is $15 at the door, $13.50 online.
