National Bridal Show next weekend

Published on Sep 04, 2009

Attention all brides-to-be, the National Bridal Show is quickly approaching and brides from across Ontario will have a chance to connect with wedding professionals throughout the province.

The bridal show returns to Mississauga's International Centre from Sept. 11-13. The show features hundreds of exhibitions with unique bridal products and services, tips from wedding professionals and the latest fashions and decoration trends for 2010.

Florists, designers, caterers, venues, DJs, photographers and cake designers will be on site to help brides and grooms plan their perfect day.

Fashion shows highlighting what's new and fresh in wedding fashion will be held throughout the weekend. The shows present the latest in apparel for the entire wedding party.

This year, the National Bridal Show is going green — a growing trend in the wedding industry. Exhibitors who offer eco-friendly products and services will be on hand to help make your wedding a green affair.

Attendees can bring gently-used bridal gowns to the Bride's Project booth at the show. The dresses will be recycled for sale at the Bride's Project store in Toronto, which helps all brides look beautiful on their day, regardless of their budget. Proceeds from the dresses sold go toward helping children and adults living with cancer. Visit www.thebridesproject.com

The show will be held on Friday Sept. 11 from 5-9 p. m., Saturday, from 10 a. m.-9 p. m. and Sunday, 10 a. m. – 6 p. m., at the International Centre, 6900 Airport Rd. at Derry Rd.

Tickets are available online ($13.50) or at the door ($15) and parking is free.
